The Difference.
"Well, George," said the president of the company to old George, "how goes it?"
"Fair to middlin', sir," George answered. And he continued to currying a bay horse.
"Me an' this here boss," George said, suddenly, "has worked for your firm sixteen years."
"Well, well," said the president, thinking a little guiltily of George's salary. "And I suppose you are both pretty highly valued, George, eh?"
"H'm," said George, "the both of us was took sick last week, and they got a doctor for the boss, but they just docked my pay."—Home Companion.
"Nor Custom State."
Mother—"You were a long time in the conservatory with Mr. Willing last night, my child. What was going on?"
Daughter—"Did you ever sit in the conservatory with father before you married him?"
Mother—"I suppose I did."
Daughter—"Well, mother, it's the same old world."—Tit-Bits.
